

Kelly Xie
*Guangxi Ame-Aus International Cultural Exchange Co.
Ltd.*

Candidates Objectives

From the Australian chamber of commerce member of half a year since taking office in June, I always believe in order to promote sino-australian enterprise and between establishment and Guangxi in Guangzhou as the core under the leadership of the close connection between government and the enterprises for the purpose. In the end of September this year, I entrusted by Guangxi Liuzhou city government invited Australia's deputy consul general Mr Paul as a guest for the association of south-east Asian nations (ASEAN) in Guangxi Auto Expo opening ceremony, and dinner and party secretary met with, and access to China's best-selling car companies - Wuling Baojun base, and with one of the most famous vocational school leaders meeting in Guangxi. At the same time, in Liuzhou city of Guangxi, we have established the alliance of overseas returnees, and carried out various national exchange activities to strengthen the links between Australia and the economic and cultural education in Guangxi. I will continue to hold more rich and colorful Australian culture characteristic business social activities, by sharing information, establish contact and business services to support and promote the enterprise contact, wholeheartedly serve the Australian chamber of commerce, China - south China.

Candidates Biography

Kelly Xie is the Executive Director of Guangxi Ame-Aus International Cultural Exchange and has utilised her lifelong passion for international exchange in cultural, education and economics to drive her own business as well as broader China-Australia relations. Kelly graduated from the University of Birmingham UK with a Masters and Bachelor Degree in Tourism Administration Business. Since then, for the past eight years she has committed herself to various Australia-centric activities in Shanghai and Liuzhou, with a focus on developing Guangxi province. Kelly is excited and honoured to be brought onto the AustCham board, and looks forward to utilising her network and passion for increasing trade and educational exchange for the benefit of the wider business community.