

Louis Chen
AOYE Immigration Services Co. Ltd.

Candidates Objectives

As board director, I will work closely with Austcham members and another board to contribute to overall AustCham growth and trade relations between Australia and China.

1. Always focusing on boosting trade& communication of Australia and china.
2. Keep close relations with Aust-cham board and team.
3. I will planning my personal schedule more flexible and in advance, so that I can attend board meeting and keep low absence.
4. After the meeting, keep trace on meeting minutes and give help when needed.
5. Now it's hard running business , lots of company is somewhat in trouble , so need to work closely with Aust-cham relevant enterprise to find out better for business expansion.

Candidates Biography

I am the general manager of the aoye group. After I graduated from the university of Liverpool with master degree , I have worked in large state-owned enterprise Chinese south sea oil company and hongkong listed company R&F properties .

With multi-type industry managerial skills and rich experience, I choose to joined Chinese and Australia multinational corporation aoye and take over as group general manager.

Aoye Group is the most influential domestic immigration brand and agency and the first choice for immigration to Australia. Having engaged in investment immigration for nearly twenty years, Aoye is a leading enterprise in global investment immigration industry, committed to rendering one-stop customized immigration, overseas real estate, overseas finance and other services. Based in Guangzhou, China and Sydney, Australia, Aoye is trusted and supported by immigration clients across China. To date, Aoye has helped realise over 10,000 families' immigration and overseas property dream and has been awarded the "the most-trusted brand" and "European, American and Australian Immigration Brand" by a number of authoritative institutions. The first Australian Significant Investor Visa 188C (SIV) in the world was born in Aoye.