

Vicky Ly
Vanguard Global Sourcing

Candidates Objectives

1. To leverage knowledge across different industries and to share information regarding doing business in China.
2. To create a network of different contacts across different industries so any business can be recommended to people we know within the network
3. To promote AustCham to other people within our current network and industry.
4. To have influence over the strategic direction of AustCham and to grow the current member base.
5. To find and introduce AustCham to other industries that are not currently in the member base.

Candidates Biography

Vicky is an Australian born Chinese who has lived in China for the past 3.5 years. She is VP of Operations for Vanguard Global Sourcing, a trading company that specializes in mens footwear for the US market. Vicky graduated with a Commerce/Arts degree from Monash University in Melbourne, Australia and has spent the last 10 years in the footwear industry, her background is footwear product development and buying. Vicky is excited to be part of the AustCham community and looks forward to contributing her thoughts and experiences to the Aust Cham network and to bring and introduce different industries to the current membership base.