WHO CAN JOIN?

Membership of AustCham South China is open to individuals and companies. AustCham South China's Board of Directors reserves the right to decide the appropriate membership category for each applicant. The Membership categories are:

Platinum Partnership

Membership under this category is open to Australian, Chinese or international corporation, enterprises or institutions. Platinum Partnership is the premium level of AustCham South China and includes the same benefits as corporate membership, along with additional 'naming rights' and elite organizational branding and services. For more information on a custom Platinum Partnership please contact the AustCham office. The annual Platinum Partnership fee is RMB 30000

Corporate Membership

Corporate membership is open to corporations, enterprises or institutions that have a registered office in China with Australian, Chinese or international ownership, management and interests. The annual membership fee is RMB 4,000.

Individual Membership

Individual membership is open to any Australian citizen, or permanent resident of Australia, or any person of another nationality with a substantial affiliation with or interest in Australia, who subscribes to the mission and objects of the Chamber.

Thank you for your application! We look forward to your involvement as an active member!
